that they will know justice and freedom in this life;
We pray to the Lord:

As Catholics, called to reflect the light of Jesus in places of great darkness, we must speak out and work tirelessly on behalf of our brothers and sisters in captivity. We must educate others on what we can do to eradicate the deplorable trade of women and children for profit. And we must pray for the rescue and restoration of victims, for the redemption of traffickers, and for the protection of all human life.

~ Diane Bayly, "Sex Trafficking: The New Slavery" USCCB Respect Life Program (2010-2011)

Pope Benedict's first message to young people, he taught with great conviction that if "we let Christ into our lives, we lose nothing, absolutely nothing of what makes life free, beautiful and great. Only in this friendship is the great potential of human existence truly revealed."

~ Megan Breen & Samuel Vasquez, "The Promise of Pro-Life Youth," USCCB Respect Life Program (2010-2011)

Mercy brings healing that is impossible on a merely human level. Divine Mercy can restore hope, because it flows from the heart of the Risen Christ who, once and for all, has vanquished the finality of death. The deep truth that faith teaches is that only in the context of mercy—God's Mercy and our own forgiveness and mercy—can we, as wounded human men and women, find healing and hope.

~ Bishop Robert Finn, "Divine Mercy and the Death Penalty," USCCB Respect Life Program (2010-2011)

The true measure of humanity is essentially determined in relationship to suffering and to the sufferer... A society unable to accept its suffering members and incapable of helping to share their suffering and to bear it inwardly through 'com-compassion' is a cruel and inhuman society.

~ Pope Benedict XVI, In Hope We Are Saved, no. 38

His death is the ultimate sign of his mercy and of his willingness to suffer with and for us. Neither we nor our children have done anything to deserve his unconditional love and compassion, but we who mourn can entrust ourselves to his mercy. His death gives us hope that there is meaning in suffering. His resurrection also teaches us that there is life after tragedy, even the death of a child by suicide.

~ Gladys Sweeney, Ph.D., "Losing a Child to Suicide: Trusting in God's Mercy," USCCB Respect Life Program (2010-2011)
