

“Go,” He Said

Personal/Group Reflection Guide

As you read this letter, I invite you to ask the Holy Spirit to open your heart and grant you the gift of wisdom, so that you might perceive in its words whatever will enable you to grasp more fully how Christ is calling you, as he did his apostles, to “go forth and make disciples of all nations”.

For “everyone who calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.” But how can they call on him in whom they have not believed? And how can they believe in him of whom they have not heard? And how can they hear without someone to preach? And how can people preach unless they are sent? As it is written, “How beautiful are the feet of those who bring [the] good news!” (Romans 10:13-15)

The Spirit brings us to Christ and allows us to bring others to him and ultimately to the Father.

1. What are my initial responses to the pastoral letter?
2. What is my attitude about all of this? How does my life fit into Christ?
3. What are the gifts God has given me?
4. What is the common mission and how could my gifts contribute to the mission?
5. How committed am I at this point in my life?
6. Do I ever sense the influence of the Holy Spirit, particularly in reaching out to others in friendship?
7. What is God saying to me? Is there something I am called to do?
8. How do I feel about stepping out of my comfort zone? Am I willing to meet and walk with others, where they are?
9. Do I really believe in the power of God to transform everything, even if he does some of that through me?
10. Does it matter that people believe in Jesus Christ and have hope in eternal life?

How can I be a true disciple in the following areas?

- My family
- My friends/neighbors/colleagues
- My faith community
- The Kingdom of God

This really is a whole new direction for us and will require imagination, energy and courage.
